

Vive Le Vin

Ballet Austin Guild's Annual Wine and Food Event & Silent Auction

Thursday October 29, 2009
6:00 – 9:00 pm
AT&T CONFERENCE CENTER
Austin, Texas

On Thursday October 29, 2009, the Ballet Austin Guild will host its 5th Annual Wine and Food Event Vive Le Vin. This yearly event is the second largest fundraiser for the Ballet Austin Guild, a non-profit organization whose mission is to raise money for and promote the interests of Ballet Austin. We are particularly excited about this year's party as it will be our first time at the beautiful, new AT&T Conference Center at The University of Texas at Austin, with cuisine by Executive Chef Josh K. Watkins (formerly of the Driskill).

In conjunction with the wine and food tastings, there will be music and a silent auction with many wonderful packages to bid on (the "Romantic Get-Away Package", "Ladies Day- Out Package", etc) and individual items, including artwork, jewelry, and shopping gift certificates. The silent auction has been a very successful and popular part of the wine and food event. Last year, merchants like you helped us raise a significant amount in support of Ballet Austin's 2008-2009 Season. With your kind donation we hope to make this year's silent auction even more successful. Your gracious donation will be featured in event materials and signage.

Enclosed you will find a donor pledge form. Your prompt response and generous contribution to this request will be greatly appreciated. We look forward to hearing from you soon.

Sincerely,

Leslie Cox
